

Dansville Cubs Get Awards

Cub Scouts of Pack 71 at St. Mary's Church were cited during the holiday meeting conducted recently at St. Mary's School.

Those receiving citations were two Webelos — Ian Gendreau and Jacob Carlton — who each were awarded their Citizen Activity Badges. Michael Scharmberg, Bradley Martina and H. D. Burley, all members of Den 2, were presented their silver arrows on their wolf badges.

Receiving $70 gift certificates — good at Child's World in Rochester — as top salesmen during the pack's recent Tom Wat Sale, a fund raiser for the scouting organization, were Tom Jamison, Scott Francis and Justin Braun. Each of the boys sold nearly $700 worth of goods.

Second place winners, each receiving $50 awards, were John Guiliano, Kevin Sick and Dannie Renwand; third place, receiving $25 awards, were Brian Shutt, Mike Shepherd and Frank Faulds.

A special certificate of appreciation was presented to Kathy Jamison. The award was made for her efforts and hours of work put in on the Tom Wat Sale.

Prior to the pack's regular session, the scouts took part in the Project Christmas program with each den delivering to a needy family a basket filled with food, seasonal goodies and a poinsettia.

As each den returned to St. Mary's School, the members were treated to holiday activities, pizza and hot chocolate.

Youth Is Facing Additional Charge

Already facing charges of third-degree burglary and petit larceny following his arrest on New Year's Day, a 17-year-old youth was arrested last Thursday for possession of stolen property.

Police Chief Marc Vernam reported the boy, whose identity is being withheld pending possible youthful offender treatment, was arrested by Police Sgt. Kirk Walker at the youth's home.

Arrested before Village Justice John J. Weidman, the youth was committed to Livingston County Jail in lieu of $250 cash bail.

His arrest on the second charge came after a resident read in the Express an accounting of the first charge of entering a Park Avenue home on Dec. 24 and reported her house had been entered on Dec. 18. Taken was a quartz space heater and a solar calculator, Walker stated. He said the items have been recovered.

Town Judge Sets Fines for Drivers

Fines, surcharges and civil penalty totaling $750 were levied on eight motorists during a session of court last Thursday before North Dansville Town Justice John J. Weidman. Pleading guilty to charges, with fines and surcharges of $10 each, were:

Gary A. Kaufman, 21, Williamsville, speeding, $100; Kenroy A. Walker, 38, Jamaica, L. I., speeding, $75; Charles L. Gentry, 60, Richmond, Va., speeding, $45, no log book, $200; Gilda A. Calabrese, 46, Brooklyn, speeding, $75; Peter C. Kouriliparas, 29, Conklin, speeding, $60; Laura C. Mullen, 30, Belmont, unregistered motor vehicle, $25; Patricia A. Summer, 43, Johnson City, $75.

Paying a civil penalty of $25 for not wearing a seat belt was Daniel Bonin, 25, of Rochester.

Motorists Hurt In Village Crash

Two Dansville men were injured and the driver ticketed, the result of a one car accident shortly before 10:30 p.m. Thursday on William Street.

Treated at Noyes Memorial Hospital for head and arm injuries was the driver, Clayton W. Babcock, 30, of 58 William St., and Joseph Sullivan, 25, of 29 Elizabeth St., who sustained head and face injuries.

Babcock was charged with unlicensed operation and failing to keep right. Both he and Sullivan were issued tickets for not wearing seat belts.

Police said the Babcock car slid out of control coming to a stop in a ditch along side William Street.
